BLAME CITY OFFICIALS FOR IGNORING THE LAWS

Grand Jury Charges Mayor and Chief of Police with Upholding Lawlessness.

CREATED A SENSATION

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 9.—Chief of Police McWeeney, Mayor Fogarty and the Board of Public Safety are charged by the grand jury with upholding the reign of lawlessness which now holds South Bend in its grasp. The report, which was made this afternoon, and which created a sensation, is as follows:

"We, the grand jury, report that lack of enforcement of laws of Indiana by police force of South Bend is obvious and deplorable; that officers defend such policy; that the chief of police drives houses of ill fame in South Bend by keepers of said places, giving to them certificates of health of inmates; that the chief of police said this was the policy of himself and his superiors, and that he himself had inaugurated the certificate system.

"When the chief of police was questioned as to slot machines he became insulting and abusive and said that he was no farmer, and that he was not born in a manger; that the chief of police admitted rescuing a girl at a gambling place in South Bend, yet he had never visited the place since to see if laws of the State were complied with, broken or violated; that chief of police had interpreted and enforced Indiana statutes as he saw fit, and that no one had any authority to question or dictate as to what he should do or should not do."

Carnegie's Gift to Buy Organ.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ANDERSON, Ind., Feb. 9.—Andrew Carnegie has signified his intention of assisting the women of the Presbyterian Church of this city in their efforts to install a fine new pipe organ in the new church which the congregation has undertaken to build this season. The matter was brought to the attention of the multimillionaire some months ago and recently a blank application was received to fill out. The answer has been received in the form of a gift of $1,500, but it is made dependent upon the organ costing not less than $3,000 and the Carnegie sum to be the final part of the purchase money.

Epidemic of Measles.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ANDERSON, Ind., Feb. 9.—Anderson is the victim of an epidemic of measles. It is said that about five hundred cases have been reported within the past ten days. To-day the health officers put up signs on two score more of homes. The disease is a mild form, however, as but few severe cases have been reported.

WHAT TEA DOES TO RHEUMATICS.

When you next take tea, think of this. Tea contains 175 grains of Uric Acid in every pound.

Meat contains only five to seven grains. Rheumatism is Uric Acid in the blood. Uric Acid accumulates from food when the digestive apparatus cannot create enough Alkaline elements (like soda) to neutralize it.

This Acid collects urea, or worn-out waste matter, from the system.

That Urea enters the blood when Alkaline action has not previously dissolved it.

By and by the waste matter reaches the joints and muscles, through circulation of the blood.

There it gradually deposits in solid particles, like granulated sugar.

These solid particles grind between the joints and muscles at every movement.

This grinding causes irritation and pain. These in turn may develop inflammation and swelling. That inflammation bestirs Nature to help herself.

She proceeds to coat the hard Uric particles over with cushions of pulpy mucus, like the first healing strata of an outer sore.

This pulpy covering grows to the bones, as well as to the particles deposited. There it hardens like plaster or sealing wax. Then we have "bony joints," almost inflexible, and usually fixed in a bent position, from the pain and inflammation.

That is Rheumatism at its worst.

It is bad enough before it gets that far.

There is but one sure way of curing Rheumatism. The first step is to neutralize the Uric Acid already in the system. Next, to dissolve and carry away the hard deposits that grind between the joints. Then get the digestive apparatus into such healthy condition that it will, unaided, produce less Uric Acid, and more Alkaline.

This is what doctors generally have failed to do.

It is what I studied a lifetime to accomplish, and achieved only after many failures and thousands of experiments.

At last I found, in Germany, a solvent which was not only effective, but absolutely safe to use.

Few agents powerful enough to be effective in Rheumatism are safe.

My discovery, now called "Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure," acts directly, but internally, upon Uric Acid in the joints and muscles.

It dissolves and carries off the painful deposits, producing an immediate Alkaline condition of the blood, and neutralizing the Acid in it which would have fed the Rheumatism and extended the disease.

It won't restore bony joints to flexibility, and it can't undo the damage caused by years of rheumatic condition.

But it will benefit every case, and it will cure the blood, and neutralizing the Acid in it which would have fed the Rheumatism and extended the disease.

So sure am I of this, that I will supply Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure to any sick one who writes me for it, on a month's trial, at my risk.

If it succeeds, the cost to him is only $5.00 for the six-bottle treatment.

If it fails, I bear the whole cost myself. And he alone shall be the judge—shall decide who shall pay.

Surely you will not continue to suffer when you can thus get well, at my risk. I have written an important treatise on Rheumatism, telling of its relief and cure. It is free to Rheumatic people.

Write me a post card to let me know.

Address—Dr. Shoop, Box 2790, Racine, Wis.

P. S.—Simple cases often yield to one bottle of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure (Druggists $1.00). But all druggists do not supply it on a month's trial. You must write to me for that. C. I. S.

Men on the Car Platform Thankful for Swamp-Root

Attacked by Diseases Due to Cold, Exposure and the Terrible Strain of Their Work,
Motormen and Conductors Are Made Strong by This Wonderful Remedy

The daily work of a motorman is enough to break down a constitution of steel. He must face cold and storm day and night. Cooped up on his narrow platform, he must stand while the bitter winds pierce him to the bone, no matter how heavy his clothing. Every minute he must be on the alert, and in the midst of suffering his judgment must be quick and sure, for an error may cost a human life. Tired and hungry, after hours of work that keep his nerves tense as fiddle-strings, he sits in the corner of a car to devour a cold, hasty meal from a tin pail. These brave men are exposed to risks as great as those of the battlefield. Fortunately, when nature can stand the strain no longer, the railroad men know where to find new strength and energy. The statements printed below tell of wonderful cures by Swamp-Root, the great Kidney Remedy.

Swamp-Root Cured Me.

(TO A REPORTER.)

"Like magic fittingly describes the manner in which Swamp-Root cured me of poor digestion, coated tongue and loss of appetite, of many years' standing. I tried nearly every medicine for stomach trouble that was recommended to me, without relief, until I tried Swamp-Root on the advice of a friend. It did not require more than four bottles to set my stomach right, and for the past two months I have been eating with a relish anything set before me, something I had been unable to do previously for years. Am stronger than ever."

Splendid Results Obtained by the Use of Swamp-Root.

(TO A REPORTER.)

"During the epidemic of gripe in 1889 I fell a victim; since then, at the change of the seasons—Spring and Fall—I suffered more or less severely with fearful pains in my bones, accompanied with a general exhaustion, sometimes so bad I would have to take to my bed. Last Fall I was threatened with the usual attack, and, hearing of the good results obtained through Swamp-Root, I bought a 50c bottle, which benefited me so greatly that to make assurance doubly sure, I bought another, which cured me so effectually that I have had no pain or ache since. Swamp-Root has my grateful and hearty indorsement."

Lame Back Cured by Swamp-Root.

(TO A REPORTER.)

"For a long time I suffered with backaches. I tried plasters, liniments and divers concoctions, without relief. Hearing and reading so much about the merits of Swamp-Root, I thought I would give it a trial. Before finishing the first bottle the kink in my back had nearly disappeared; this encouraged me to use it faithfully. Five bottles cured me entirely, and although it is over six months since my recovery I have had no pain or ache since. It certainly affords me pleasure to indorse Swamp-Root."

Weak Kidneys Cured by Swamp-Root.

(TO A REPORTER.)

Outdoor workers of every kind escape grave dangers by taking Swamp-Root at the first sign of kidney or bladder trouble. Don't wait until tomorrow.

"In my case Swamp-Root was the one kidney remedy that cured me when all others utterly failed. I consider its effect on weak kidneys really wonderful and am pleased to indorse its merits. It cures and gives strength."

Jas. Farrell

Heartily Recommends Swamp-Root.

(TO A REPORTER.)

"Suffered a long time with gastric dyspepsia, which no remedy seemed to benefit, until I commenced taking Swamp-Root. I first tried a small sized bottle, with such good results that I determined to try more, and it cured me so effectually that, though it is now nearly a year ago since my recovery, there has been no return of the dread gastric attacks. I take this means of showing my gratitude, and heartily recommend Swamp-Root to all suffering the same as I did."

Why Swamp-Root Gives Strength

Almost every one, from personal experience, knows that the effects of any kind of severe physical strain are felt, first of all, in the small of the back—in other words, in those Vital Organs, the Kidneys. This is as true in the case of the very powerful man as it is with one of less strength, and it is especially true whenever the kidneys are weak. Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue fatal results are sure to follow.

SWAMP-ROOT STRENGTHENS THE KIDNEYS and through them helps all the other organs. When this wonderful medical discovery can put the human body into condition to stand the hard work and the tremendous strain of the motormen, it is easy to understand how it has cured thousands upon thousands in the more ordinary and less strenuous walks of life.

No matter how many doctors you have tried—no matter how much money you have spent on other medicines—you really owe it to yourself and to your family to at least give Swamp-Root a trial. Its strongest friends to-day are those who had almost given up hope of ever becoming well again.

TERRELL SUDDENLY GOES VIOLENTLY INSANE

Convicted Murderer Paces Up and Down His Cell Talking Incoherently.

SANITY INQUEST HELD

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ELIZABETHTON, Ind., Feb. 9.—John W. Terrell, convicted to life imprisonment for the murder of his son-in-law, Melvin Wolfe, is a raving maniac in his cell in the Wells county jail in this city, where he has been confined since July 12 last, on which date he killed Wolfe. For several days Terrell has not appeared well and has been watched closely. Last night his mind apparently gave way entirely. Opening his safe, which has been kept in his cell since last summer, he destroyed some papers the exact value of which is not yet known, before he could be prevented. Sheriff Johnson says that for several days he has slept very little and has eaten hardly anything. He walks up and down his cell in his stocking feet, half dressed, talking incoherently of stocks and bonds and various business ventures. It was only yesterday that he transferred his opera house interests to his son-in-law, John Schott, of Chicago. L. H. Cook and E. R. Horton were called in attendance on Terrell this morning. He recognized neither of them nor his attorney, A. L. Sharpe, although he formerly knew all of them well. The doctors said the verdict will be given Wednesday. An insanity inquest was held over Terrell before Justice Walbert at the county jail. The verdict will be given Wednesday. If found insane Terrell will be committed to the department for the insane at Michigan City. Judge Smith, of Portland, was to have been here Thursday to rule upon the motion for a new trial for Terrell.

WHOLE CITY SUFFERING FROM WATER SHORTAGE

Will Be No Relief Until Large
Pump Boat Arrives from Cincinnati to Fill Mains.

SCHOOLS MAY BE CLOSED

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 9.—The shortage of the water supply may result in the closing of all schools in the city. The pressure is so light that all buildings where water is used on the second floor are in a deplorable sanitary condition. Factories are suffering greatly and many may be forced to close down. There will be no relief from the present condition until the arrival of the large pump boat from Cincinnati, which will be used to pump directly into the mains. The west end station will be in operation Wednesday, but will only be able to furnish 2,000,000 gallons a day. The river wall is still standing, but is expected to fall at any time. Work on the tunnel to the new intake pipe is progressing rapidly and will be completed in about two weeks. The advisory board appointed by Mayor Charles G. Covert, after a squabble with the regular water works board and Superintendent Thuman, tendered their resignations to-day to Mayor Covert and he refused to accept them.

MEASLES CAUSE DEATHS.

Estimated There Are 600 Cases of the Disease at Elwood.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ELWOOD, Ind., Feb. 9.—The epidemic of measles here is the worst in the history of the city, and is remarkable for the number of adults affected, there having already been several deaths. City Health Officer Stockhardt long since exhausted the supply of placards which are used to point out the houses where the disease exists, and it is conservatively estimated that there are six hundred cases in the city.

Enthusiasm Marked the Proceedings.

STATE LEADERS PRESENT

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
WABASH, Ind., Feb. 9.—The Wabash county Republican convention, which met here to-day, was one of the largest and most exciting ever held in the county. Martin; recorder, George Ogden, of Laketon; surveyor, Charles Bratt.

The feature of the proceedings was the announcement of Warren G. Sayre's candidacy for Governor, which set the convention wild. Mr. Sayre, in acknowledging unanimous nomination for representative, declared that he was in the race for Governor, paying graceful tribute to the present candidates. He announced in his platform economy in public expenditures and value received for every dollar of tax collected. He will have the enthusiastic support of the party of the county. Among those present were Frank Hanly and William Taylor, candidates for Governor, Fred Landis, candidate for Congress, and Frank Smith, candidate for reporter of Supreme Court. The first three made addresses.

SUBSIDY TO ASSIST RAILROAD DEFEATED

Election Was the Hottest the Taxpayers of Noblesville Experienced in Years.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Feb. 9.—The election in this township to-day on the question of a 1 per cent. subsidy to the Fort Wayne & Indianapolis Railroad resulted in the defeat of the subsidy by a vote of 839 to 688. It was the most spirited contest here in years. More feeling was aroused than during a presidential election.

The promoters of the project, mostly non-residents of this county, have been working day and night for the subsidy. To-day they hired carriages to haul voters to the polls, and used all the tactics of a hotly contested election. This is the second defeat the promoters of this road have suffered in this county, having been defeated in Fall Creek township some three months ago.
